

Leprosy Mission & BCA Boxes

Thank you to everyone who has brought in their mission boxes.

If you haven't yet done so, please return TLM & BCA boxes to the Parish office this week so that payments can be sent at the end of October.

FOR A WORLD WITHOUT LEPROSY

Seniors Week

Thank you to everyone who helped out with setting up, food & clean up, as well as all who came along and supported the Seniors Week programs.

All three days were very enjoyable, and quite a number of people from outside the Parish attended both the Healing service and lunch with Dr Razay and the Dementia, Pneumococcal and Carers sessions at St David's on Friday.

Please pray for all those who attended, that the links forged through these outreaches would be strengthened and relationships grow.

What's Cooking in the Kitchen?

No husband has ever been shot while doing the dishes.

Keep your kitchen clean. Eat out.

A messy kitchen is a happy kitchen. This one is delirious.

Thou shalt not weigh more than thy refrigerator.

My next house will not have a kitchen - just vending machines.

Countless people have eaten in this kitchen and gone on to lead normal lives.

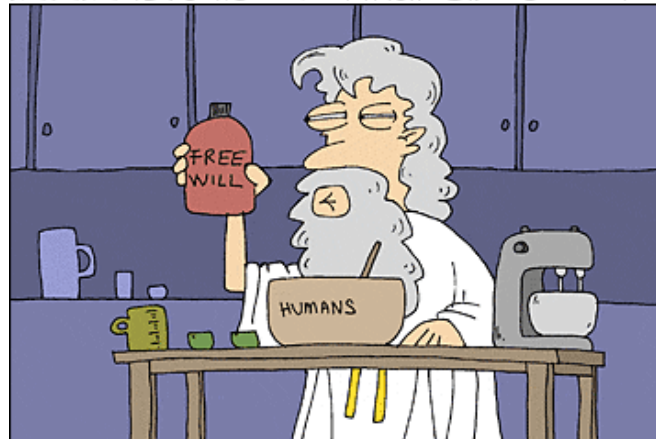

Skinny cooks can't be trusted.

A balanced diet is a bar of chocolate in each hand.

I use a smoke alarm as a timer.

I cook with wine. Sometimes I even add it to the food.

In A Word

He who overcomes and keeps my work until the end, to him I will give power over the nations.

Revelation 2:26

Think for a moment about this question: What if God weren't here on earth? You think people can be cruel now, imagine us without the presence of God. You think we are brutal to each other now, imagine the world without the Holy Spirit. You think there is loneliness and despair and guilt now, imagine life without the touch of Jesus. No forgiveness. No hope. No acts of kindness. No words of love. No more food given in His name. No more songs sung to his praise. No more deeds done in his honour. If God took away his angels, his grace, his promise of eternity, and his servants, what would the world be like?

In a word, hell.

Praise for:

- † Some agreement this week between the political parties
- † All volunteers and carers here in Tasmania who give unstintingly of their time and talents to help and care for others
- † Those who work to keep us safe - police, fire fighters, search and rescue & flying doctors

Pray for:

- † Margaret Smith's husband Alex as he awaits the results from tests he had last week
- † Rona & family as they grieve Shane's passing
- † Rain Australia-wide, particularly our own state which is already very dry as we approach the Summer season
- † Tessa's husband Peter who is now in Israel
- † "Street Mercy" in Bulgaria. Every day hundreds of homeless people count on this service for food and help

Continue to pray for:

- † Kay Bennett and Peter, Margot, Maree, and all who are in high care
- † Margaret Chenery's shoulder pain
- † Sheila Dyer as she settles into PresCare
- † Graeme's brother Alan
- † The nomination committee for the new Bishop
- † 3 new families for St Oswald's & St David's
- † Josh, James, Job, Roger & Anne
- † Tim, Emma, Sophie & Jake in SE Asia
- † Pray often for each other, especially:
 - † Bill & Bev † Margot † Rona & Shane
 - † Robin † Dick & Jo † Joan W
 - † Roger & Julianne † Ian, Helen & Sarah
 - † Alison † Marie † Pat & Val
 - † Jan & Bill, Richard, Michael & Marlene

Delight yourself in the Lord and he will give you the desires of your heart.

Psalm 37:4

As you get to know God better, as you bask in his love and care, your desires will change. Selfishness and unwholesome desires will fade away. You will begin to understand and desire those things he desires for you - those things that will resonate in your heart and bring you true happiness. God created you, and he knows you better than you know yourself. Trust him to give you the desires of your heart.
